

The image shows a 3x3 grid of 9 squares. Each square contains a unique geometric pattern made of lines and circles. The patterns are numbered 1 through 9. The numbers are placed in the top-right, bottom-left, or center of the squares. The patterns consist of various combinations of horizontal, vertical, and diagonal lines, some ending in arrows, and some containing circles.