

The image shows a 3x3 grid of squares. Each square contains a unique pattern of black arrows. The arrows are oriented in various directions: horizontally, vertically, and diagonally. The patterns are as follows:

- Top-left square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Top-middle square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Top-right square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Middle-left square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Middle-middle square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Middle-right square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Bottom-left square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Bottom-middle square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
- Bottom-right square: One arrow pointing up from the bottom edge, one pointing down from the top edge, and one pointing left from the right edge.
