- Top-left square: Four arrows pointing outwards from the center towards the top, bottom, left, and right edges.
- Top-middle square: Two arrows pointing diagonally outwards from the center towards the top-left and bottom-right corners.
- Top-right square: Four arrows pointing inwards from the top, bottom, left, and right edges towards the center.
- Middle-left square: Four arrows pointing outwards from the center towards the top, bottom, left, and right edges.
- Middle-middle square: Four arrows pointing diagonally outwards from the center towards the four corners.
- Middle-right square: Four arrows pointing inwards from the top, bottom, left, and right edges towards the center.
- Bottom-left square: Four arrows pointing outwards from the center towards the top, bottom, left, and right edges.
- Bottom-middle square: Two arrows pointing diagonally outwards from the center towards the top-left and bottom-right corners.
- Bottom-right square: Four arrows pointing inwards from the top, bottom, left, and right edges towards the center.
