

The image displays a 3x3 grid of 9 diagrams. Each diagram is a 2x2 grid of vertices (represented by small squares) connected by lines. The arrows indicate the direction of flow between the four vertices in each 2x2 sub-grid. The diagrams are arranged in a 3x3 grid, with each diagram occupying one of the nine positions. The arrows are black, and the grid lines are thin and gray.