

A 10x10 grid with a complex black pattern of lines. The pattern consists of thick black lines that form a series of interconnected shapes, resembling a maze or a stylized letter 'E' with various extensions. The lines are drawn on a white background, and the grid lines are thin and light gray. The pattern starts from the top left and extends across the grid, with some lines forming closed loops and others extending to the edges.